MASTER PLAN - The purpose of this work session is to develop an agreed upon hierarchy of priorities for the city and its leaders and committees to focus on over time. It was designed to use the Planning Commission Corner Post items and build upon them.

Corner Posts: Jon Wierda stated he was there to make sure the meeting moved along and to ensure ideas are discussed. He stated nine items to oversee was overkill, and wanted to focus on two, maybe three areas moving forward. After discussions, Housing and Economic Development were the most important items the group wanted to concentrate on for the next year to year and a half. Mark Bromley suggested having a study done and creating an “Iron River Sell Sheet” to understand what Iron River has to offer and what is needed. Another meeting was scheduled for November 7, 2020 at 8:30 a.m.
